

To learn more about the sport, the following resources are recommended:

Earthdogs Ins & Outs by Jo Ann Frier-Murza. 1999 OTR Publications.
This is the most comprehensive book out on the sport to date. Best to order it online.

Village Green Farms. <http://members.aol.com/digm2/VillageGreenFarm.htm>
This is Jo Ann Frier-Murza's website. You can read excerpts from her book and order an autographed copy directly from her.

AKC Earthdog Regulations.
http://www.akc.org/events/earthdog/index.cfm?SEARCH_BUTTON.X=0&SEARCH_BUTTON.Y=
Learn more about earthdogs and download a copy of the regulations directly from the AKC.

American Working Terrier Association. <http://www.dirt-dog.com/awta/index.cfm>
This is the original group of individuals who started terrier den trials. AKC earthdogs is modeled after their den trials. Terrier and dachshund mixed dogs and other non-AKC registered terriers are eligible to earn titles through AWTA. AWTA tests are held in Hawaii when AWTA judges are available.

Rocky Mountain Earthdog Club training tips:
<http://www.gallica.us/rmgdec/tips.html>

Dogges of the Earthe.
http://members.tripod.com/duffy_90260/dogges_of_the_earthes.htm
Great site that showcases most of the different earthdog breeds.

With special emphasis on the Jack Russell Terrier. www.workingterrier.com

This link is recommended for the real hunting enthusiast!
Terrierman www.terrierman.com

For our dachshund friends!
<http://www.thedachshundnetwork.com/earthdog.htm>

Don't forget to visit our website: www.terriersinparadise.org

Essentials for Creating New Earthdogs

By Jo Ann Frier-Murza

Repeat the same phrase.
Use your hands often to praise and encourage.
Never physically force your dog.
Remove your dog carefully.
Do not over train.